This research subject is important and interesting. However, the article needs some improvements:

- 1- The references are outdated and need to be up-to-date.
- 2- The research contribution was not mentioned in the Abstract.
- 3- A more concise and comprehensive literature review, problem statement and research gap should be added.
- 4- In the Methodology, the sampling selection process and research methods and analysis should be clearly described .
- 5- The Analysis should be more comprehensive and extended. Some tables can be used to classify and clarify results and analyses. Demographic information was not mentioned as well.
- 6- A Discussion section should be added to the article and the results should be compared to the other research findings.
- 7- Research limitations and future research recommendations can be added at the end.
