

Review of: "[Commentary] India's steps towards carbon dioxide monitoring in public assembly spaces for ventilation measurement for airborne infection control and other factors"

Xiaojuan Xie<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Nanjing Normal University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

I totally agree with the commentary. The public should pay more attention on indoor air quality and ventilation. Carbon dioxide monitoring is a convenient and inexpensive method, and should be promoted in public space. More data on the relation of carbon dioxide level and airborne infection risk from the references is suggested to provide in the short commentary.