

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Eccrine Angiomatous Hamartoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Eccrine Angiomatous Hamartoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C4703.

A rare, congenital skin lesion consisting of a proliferation of eccrine glands with a vascular stroma. It presents as a flesh-colored, hyperhidrotic, painful papule or plaque appearing at birth or during childhood.