

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Medulloblastoma

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base.

Medulloblastoma. ORPHA:616

Medulloblastoma (MB) is an embryonic tumor of the neuroepithelial tissue and the most frequent primary pediatric solid malignancy. MB represents a heterogeneous group of cerebellar tumors characterized clinically by increased intracranial pressure and cerebellar dysfunction, with the most common presenting symptoms being headache, vomiting, and ataxia.