

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Solitary Osseous Plasmacytoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Solitary Osseous Plasmacytoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C7812.

A localized, clonal (malignant) plasma cell infiltrate in the bone, without peripheral blood involvement. The most commonly affected bones are the vertebrae, ribs, skull, pelvis and femur. X-rays examination reveals a solitary lytic lesion.