

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Inbred Mouse Strains

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Inbred Mouse Strains. NCI Thesaurus. Code C14421.

Any strain of mouse that is the product of a mating between close relatives. In biological research, inbreeding allows for the selection of specific genotypes or phenotypes that are of particular importance to the study being carried out.