

Review of: "Implementation of e-learning during COVID-19"

Thandar Soe Sumaiyah Jamaludin<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> International Islamic University Malaysia

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Good Study!

If the author could add the following points in this study, the reader will have a clear understanding about the study.

1. Method: Author mentioned that they applied qualitative method. However, "A statistical method was used as well as the analytical, and method of synthesis" this statement is confusing.
2. Who are the target participants?
3. What are the sample size for this study?
4. How was the collected data being analyze?
5. Result: what are the demographic characteristics of the participants?
6. Result: Just show the findings only. Please dont mixed up with the discussion with previous studies since the author has described the discussion section separately.
7. What is the study implication or recommendation from this study findings.