

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Micro-Latex Particle-Mediated Immunoassay

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Micro-Latex Particle-Mediated Immunoassay. NCI Thesaurus. Code C142341.

An assay technique used to test a individual's antigen-antibody immune response, which involves coating microbeads of latex with pathogen-specific antigens or antibodies, mixing them with the subject's fluid of interest, and then observing for any agglutination.