The theme analyzed by the authors is a relatively established one, being analyzed by several authors and specialists in the field of social corporate responsibility. The originality of the article lies in the methods used and the variety of views approached regarding the constituent elements of competitiveness through corporate social responsibility.

The organization of the article is classic, scientifically correct. Thus, the Title, Authors, Abstract, Introduction, Literature review, Hypotheses development, Research materials and methods, Results, Discussion and conclusions, Limitations and future research, References are introduced as distinct parts.

In order to increase the quality of the research, the abstract needs a revision, which includes appropriate introductory aspects about the topic, a clear description of the purpose and objectives of the research, the methodology used, the presentation of the results and conclusions. The scientific problem in the researched field is not clearly defined. To emphasize the contribution of the authors in the research topic.
