

Review of: "Tobacco Smoking-Attributable Mortality in Kenya: 2012 –2021"

C. J. Sonowal¹

¹ Tata Institute of Social Sciences

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

In continuation of my previous comments, the author should consider putting a concise note on the national policy of Kenya on tobacco use, restrictions and prevention imposed on it, and its commercials. Further, a research-based/evidence-based note should also be included in the article so that the readers get an idea of the nature and extent of tobacco use in the country. This way, the article will be more beneficial and meaningful.