

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Cervical Squamotransitional Carcinoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Cervical Squamotransitional Carcinoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C40194.

A human papillomavirus-related cervical squamous cell carcinoma characterized by the presence of papillary structures with fibrovascular cores. It is covered with multiple layers of atypical cells that resemble cervical intraepithelial neoplasia 3.