

Review of: "The quantum origins of gravity"

Saúl González-Hernández

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Subject: Response to Article Submission - The quantum origins of gravity

1. "I consider that the article does not meet the characteristics for publication, as there are very basic errors in basic calculations, especially in the deduction of equation (15), and the consequences of this error when performing the derivative, which compromise the overall development of the paper.
2. On the other hand, there is no discussion and comparison of measurable experimental data, if available, to validate the conclusions."