Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The title should be more concise in nature

What was the reason for choosing Delhi as research area? What are the statistics of Delhi of adolescents consuming tobacco as compared to National figures?

A comprehensive and tight review of literature should be added for the readers to identify the gaps

Did the schools give any consent for their names to be included in the research? Ethical permission is required even if the names of the schools are listed.

The discussion needs to be better written.

Overall a good effort but needs more
