

Review of: "Pairing Peer Education and Social Media for Adolescent Smokers with Disabilities"

Victoria Beck<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Liberty University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This is a timely and relevant article that highlights the research in an applicable way for stakeholders. It was important to read about tobacco usage among adolescents with and without disabilities, and the association with negative health and financial outcomes. The author discusses ideas on how to combat usage, through inclusive peer education combined with social media outreach to minimize, prevent, and discontinue tobacco use in adolescents with and without disabilities.