

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Antibody Degradation Process

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Antibody Degradation Process. NCI Thesaurus. Code C40676.

Antibody Degradation consists of conjugation, transport, oxidation, and/or proteolysis of members of a class of cell-surface or secreted B lymphocyte proteins that non-covalently interact through intermolecular physical forces of attraction and spatial complementarity selectively and specifically with foreign substances (antigens), typically as part of an immune response.