

Review of: "A Policy Dialogue for Nutrition of Women and Adolescent Girls: Sustainable Development Goals Matters Arising"

Hawal Lateef Fateh

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Refining the introduction section is crucial to ensure a compelling and refined presentation that captures the reader's attention effectively. Moreover, an in-depth review of the manuscript reveals a considerable number of grammatical errors that require correction. Furthermore, the language employed throughout the document lacks the necessary formality, undermining its professional tone. To rectify these shortcomings and elevate the manuscript's overall quality, it is imperative to enlist the expertise of a native speaker for a comprehensive revision. This meticulous process will not only correct grammatical inaccuracies but also enhance the overall coherence and clarity of the content, contributing to a more polished and sophisticated final product.