

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Proteolytic Processing

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Proteolytic Processing. NCI Thesaurus. Code C19900.

Generally irreversible, Proteolytic Processing involves removal of peptide segments from proteins, usually from the N- or C-terminus and often during polypeptide maturation, to regulate activity, location, or stability.