

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Juvenile primary lateral sclerosis

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base. Juvenile primary lateral sclerosis. ORPHA:247604

Juvenile primary lateral sclerosis (JPLS) is a very rare motor neuron disease characterized by progressive upper motor neuron dysfunction leading to loss of the ability to walk with wheelchair dependence, and subsequently, loss of motor speech production.