

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Fused Placenta

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Fused Placenta. NCI Thesaurus. Code C117343.

In pregnancies with more than one fetus, the composite structure that results from the growth of two (or more) placental chorionic discs such that the placental masses abut one another and are delivered as a single unit but can manually separated into individual units.