

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Splice-Site Mutation

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Splice-Site Mutation. NCI Thesaurus. Code C19798.

Any mutation that occurs within the discrete sequences comprising the 5' or 3' splice sites of a gene that has a spliced message. Splice-site mutation may result in a deletion or insertion of extraneous amino acids in the gene product or a change in the reading frame of the spliced message.