

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Infantile cerebral and cerebellar atrophy with postnatal progressive microcephaly

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base. Infantile cerebral and cerebellar atrophy with postnatal progressive microcephaly. ORPHA:402364

Infantile cerebral and cerebellar atrophy with postnatal progressive microcephaly is a rare, central nervous system malformation syndrome characterized by progressive microcephaly with profound motor delay and intellectual disability, associated with hypertonia, spasticity, clonus, and seizures, with brain imaging revealing severe cerebral and cerebellar atrophy, and poor myelination.