

Review of: "Selection of an engineering institution: Students' perceptions of choice characteristics and suitability under the COVID-19 pandemic"

Dr. Sathish Kumar Palaniappan¹

¹ King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Dear Authors,

The article is well written and the study was planned in an organized manner. The detailed survey of the selected topic in this pandemic situation is ultimately necessary and it also required in-depth and extensive technical data to understand the problem and the proposed solution. I, personally feel that this part is missing in your manuscript. Also, the data presented and the descriptions made in this manuscript is not questionable. Thank you for your wonderful study.