The author discussed all the religion that practice in Vietnam precisely. The valuable discussion is when the author explain about the Vietnam's religious policy which show that Vietnam begin to become more diverse and open minded about the religious groups in the country. This is proven by a publication of the White Paper in last March 2023 providing information about religions policies from all perspectives. Despite all of these still the Vietnam Government control all the religion movements and observed them strictly. There are still many things can be done to improve the freedom of religion in Vietnam,
