

Review of: "Women In Slum Risking Their Safety To Access And Usage Of Basic Water And Sanitation Facilities"

Dr.Avni Swift

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The topic is very relevant to today's issue and it provides solutions at ground reality level and covers various problems faced by women all around the world .Paper is well structured and easily readable and understandable .The methodology covers all the indicators and effects in a very easy and understandable system.Lastly the author's poem covers the entire research and the solutions in a well defined manner .The paper will serve as ready guide in policy making process.