Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

As a recommendation, you can:

1. Explain the ages when Chinese students finishes school. For example, in Mexico students finishes high school when they are 19 years and their Bachelor Degree at the age of 23
2. You can look for some articles explaining the ages students mature <https://www.sciencedirect.com/science/article/pii/S1877042812026559>
3. You can go deeper explaining the score required for college and graduate students in China regarding TOEFL
4. Explain what is GRE acronym is
5. In the text, you wrote: Countries like France. It would be better is you replace it for: Countries such as France.

That would be all.

Very interestig article!
