

Open Peer Review on Qeios

3-Methylglutaconic Aciduria Type 1

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. 3-Methylglutaconic Aciduria Type 1. NCI Thesaurus. Code C98683.

3-methylglutaconic aciduria inherited in an autosomal recessive pattern and caused by mutations in the AUH gene. Signs and symptoms include psychomotor developmental abnormalities, speech delay, weakness and spasm of the extremities, dystonia, and metabolic acidosis.