

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Pre-filled Syringe

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Pre-filled Syringe. NCI Thesaurus. Code C97716.

A syringe designed to dispense a predetermined dose of a drug. A prefilled syringe has the advantage of not requiring mixing or transfer of drug between containers. Most pre-filled, single use syringes resemble a standard syringe but those designed to deliver several doses may resemble a writing pen.