

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Porokeratosis of Mibelli

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base.

Porokeratosis of Mibelli. ORPHA:735

Porokeratosis of Mibelli (PM) is a form of porokeratosis that is characterized by the presence of brown single or multiple annular plaques of varying size, that are sometimes confluent, with a distinctive sharply-defined keratotic border.