The article is new and interesting. The author has done a decent work.

Few points I like add are:

1. Abstract need has to be elaborated. Explain the methodology, tools used in the article and also elaborate the findings. Also brief the implications and originality of the paper
2. In introduction (3rd line) (Schuh, Potente, Wesch-Potente, Weber, & Prote, 2014) reference has to be reduced. Put et al instead of writing all the names.
3. Cite recent articles of 2022, 2023
4. Before conclusion add implications. It will strengthen the article.
