

Review of: "The neuropsychological effects of some childhood neurodevelopmental disorders"

Ion Udristoiu

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The abstract should be rewritten or updated, since it is similar to the introduction.

The text should be reviewed for repetitions probably due to copy/paste editing.

Where is Table 3 mentioned in section 5.1?

The article is intended for describing neurodevelopmental disorders, yet there are parts that include intervention recommendations.
