

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Craniofacial Dysostosis

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Craniofacial Dysostosis. NCI Thesaurus. Code C84653.

A syndrome inherited in an autosomal dominant pattern. It is characterized by early fusion of the bones of the skull and face. Patients have a distinctive facial appearance which includes low-set ears, brachycephaly, hypertelorism, exophthalmos, and mandibular prognathism.