

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Lepidic Predominant Adenocarcinoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Lepidic Predominant Adenocarcinoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C123160.

A lung adenocarcinoma characterized by the presence of mildly and moderately differentiated adenocarcinoma cells across the alveolar walls with at least one focus of invasive carcinoma measuring more than 5 mm in greatest dimension.