

Review of: "Flourishing in Salsa Dance: A Qualitative Investigation of Aesthetic, Artistic, and Creative Contributions"

Trisnasari Fraser<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> University of Melbourne

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This is a well described study that contributes interesting qualitative findings about salsa practice in community settings among experienced dancers through the lenses of aesthetic, artistic and creative practice and the concept of flourishing (PERMA model). The authors have considered limitations of the survey design well. Good exemplar quotes are used and there is a coherence to the interpretations and data included. I have attached a PDF with highlights and suggestions.