- The abstract is partly the direct copy of the main body of the paper. Additionally, it did not describe the overall work.
- The objectives are not consistent with the title. Otherwise, the title should be modified in consistently with the objectives.
- Irrelevant citation method (e.g. Duque and collaborators, 2017). How you can say "collaborators" in academic writing?
- What was the data sources for this work? Is this a review or research work? If it is so a research work, you should have mentioned boldly.
- The methodology with it's respective analysis should also be discussed.
- The future implications and recommendations are needed to be added.
