

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Pancreatic Mixed Adenoneuroendocrine Carcinoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Pancreatic Mixed Adenoneuroendocrine Carcinoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C45843.

A rare carcinoma with a poor prognosis, characterized by the presence of a mixture of exocrine and neuroendocrine malignant epithelial cells in both the pancreas and metastatic sites. Symptoms include jaundice, abdominal pain, and weight loss.