

Review of: "Efficient Management of Information Communication Technology Resources in an Organisation"

Edison Pignaton de Freitas¹

¹ Universidade Federal do Rio Grande do Sul

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The paper discusses about efficiency in ICT resource management in organizations. The paper is well-written and the content is worth-reading. I have no major concerns regarding the content, I have just a suggestion to the authors include a discussion about the role of human resources, particularly regarding recruiting in this context. Another suggestion is to include a deeper discussion about the stages of digital transformation in modern organizations.