

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Chronic Frontal Sinusitis

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Chronic Frontal Sinusitis. NCI Thesaurus. Code C34473.

Inflammation of the frontal sinus that typically lasts beyond eight weeks. It is caused by infections, allergies, and the presence of sinus polyps or a deviated septum. Signs and symptoms include headache, nasal discharge, swelling in the face, dizziness, and breathing difficulties.