Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Below I offer my opinion regarding the work. I will do it in parts, as presented. Overall, the topic of the manuscript is interesting and has good references, I suggest, some comments that need to be addressed before publishing.

Abstract

The abstract must be ordered.

The same objective is repeated in several paragraphs. organize the state of the art exposed in the abstract so that the idea is organized into a coherent idea

Introduction

Redo the introduction and all text , you must order the text according to a central idea from the most general to the most particular. It happens that during reading ideas are repeated in a disorderly manner.

“With notable concentrations of vitamin C, potassium, folate and vitamin K, tomatoes contribute significantly to a balanced diet” : ADD REFERENCE, VERY IMPORTANT

Tables should be formatted appropriately, using uppercase letters for each nutrient or leaving them all lowercase, but the use of uppercase and lowercase letters cannot be random. appropriately use abbreviations of units according to the International System of SI Units

properly write table references

Figure 1 has the coggle reference, delete immediately and correct format, colors, font size that favors the understanding of the text. Add reference or indicate authorship of the figure

It is suggested to make a flow chart for the production of lycopene oil and maintain the description of the stages. Add processing conditions at each stage, for example: time, temperature when the stage requires it.

Conclusion

The first paragraph of the conclusion does not express a conclusion but rather repeats the ideas described in the introduction.

The conclusion allows us to give an opinion according to the stated hypothesis, in this case the stated objectives. should be brief and concise

The expression "in essence" expressed in the last paragraph is understood as a conclusion in the conclusion, this cannot occur.

Analyze this last paragraph, leave it as a conclusion, adding key aspects that support the objective, shorten the complete text to a maximum of 10 lines and establish future suggestions, leaving open the possibility of continuing the work.

example: "it is suggested..."
