There are some critics regarding this manuscript.

1. Overall paper is written in proper way but needs more improvement in the flow of the idea.
2. Abstract is too long. Massive re-write is required.
3. Paper formatting has many issues, which need to address like paragraphing space is very less and too much, formatting of main headings and sub headings are improper.
4. Section distribution is also missing which should be at the end of the introduction section.
