

Review of: "[Perspective] The possibility of a silent methamphetamine catastrophe in Bangladesh"

Nadeeka Ranadeva

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The article succinctly addresses a pressing concern regarding illicit substances, a pervasive global menace. Given the gravity of the situation, it is imperative for the South Asian region to unite and engage in collaborative research endeavors aimed at developing effective strategies for combating this issue.