This could be an interesting study. However, it needs to be further improved as indicated below:

1. research questions needs to be clearly and properly posed both in the abstract and the introduction of the paper;
2. There is no methodology at all. Hence, the author needs to develop a relevant methodology that can analyze the data.
3. Currently, the article is empirically oriented, with too many facts and figures on the EAEU. Moreover, there is an overwhelming focus on INSTC. If this is the case, then why not take INSTC as a case study;
4. No literature review on the subject, thus, there is an academic necessity to review relevant literature on the subject in order to transform this seemingly report to an academic article;
5. Data needs to be updated till 2023;
6. Finally, there are grammar issues as well, that needs to be resolved.
