

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Childhood Rhabdomyosarcoma with Mixed Embryonal and Alveolar Features

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Childhood Rhabdomyosarcoma with Mixed Embryonal and Alveolar Features. NCI Thesaurus. Code C7960.

A mixed rhabdomyosarcoma that occurs in children. The neoplasm is composed of embryonic and alveolar components. It is characterized by the presence of spindle cells with myoblastic differentiation and a myxoid and a fibrous stroma.