

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Mallory Bodies Present

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Mallory Bodies Present. NCI Thesaurus. Code C35381.

A morphologic finding indicating the presence of Mallory bodies in the liver parenchyma. Mallory bodies are eosinophilic cytoplasmic inclusions in the hepatocytes. They contain filaments and are present in the liver parenchyma of patients with various liver disorders including alcoholic liver disease, Wilson disease, and primary biliary cirrhosis.