

Review of: "What substances are adolescents vaping? Estimating nicotine-specific and marijuana-specific vaping from US national youth surveys"

Muna Barakat¹

¹ Applied Science University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This very important study with fruitful findings. The issue of vaping and MTF use is surging world wide and must be screened well.

Minor typos must be addressed before publication and more updated references could be used in the discussion section.

The authors must clarify the clinical implications of there findings in the discussion section.