

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Longissimus Capitis

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Longissimus Capitis. NCI Thesaurus. Code C53166.

A muscle originating from the transverse processes of the upper thoracic vertebrae and the articular processes of the lower cervical vertebrae which inserts into the mastoid process acting to keep the head upright and to move it backward or to one side.