

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Maffucci Syndrome

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Maffucci Syndrome. NCI Thesaurus. Code C3213.

A rare non-inherited disorder primarily affecting the skin and skeletal system. It is classified as a mesodermal dysplasia. Clinical signs appear within the first decade and are characterized by multiple soft tissue hemangiomas and enchondromas leading to skeletal deformities. Clinical course is progressive with variable development of associated malignancies.