

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Vitamin D Dependent Rickets 2

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Vitamin D Dependent Rickets 2. NCI Thesaurus. Code C131077.

An autosomal recessive form of rickets caused by mutation(s) in the VDR gene, encoding the vitamin D receptor. The condition is characterized by hypocalcemia, increased concentrations of calcitriol, secondary hyperparathyroidism, early-onset rickets and alopecia.