

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Positron Emission Tomography with Radiolabeled Targeting Agent

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Positron Emission Tomography with Radiolabeled Targeting Agent. NCI Thesaurus. Code C116449.

A functional nuclear medicine test that utilizes a radioactive tracer, most commonly the radiolabeled sugar fluorodeoxyglucose, to identify tumors and metastasis.