

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Malignant Cervical Mixed Epithelial and Mesenchymal Neoplasm

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Malignant Cervical Mixed Epithelial and Mesenchymal Neoplasm. NCI Thesaurus. Code C40228.

A mixed epithelial and mesenchymal neoplasm that arises from the cervix and is characterized by the presence of malignant mesenchymal elements and benign or malignant epithelial elements. This category includes adenosarcoma and carcinosarcoma.