

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Uric Acid

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Uric Acid. NCI Thesaurus. Code C62652.

A white tasteless odorless crystalline product of protein metabolism, found in the blood and urine, as well as trace amounts found in the various organs of the body. It can build up and form stones or crystals in various disease states.